Tanya retreats back, blood visible on her hand; the bathroom mirror had mysteriously shattered, which had caused the loud noise. Also, the ending, oh man! The only chapter which created any sort of tension or interest was where the girls go up to the party and things start getting tense and weird. I guess, it just was not all I hoped it would be. Not trivia or quizzes. I will continue to read the series and I hope to good that I will begin to enjoy it more as it goes on but for me, this book was a big no no and does not raise the hopes or spirits of a good series to come. If you prefer very complex, descriptive, over-use of analogies kind of YA novels then this might not be for you BUT if you just want a nice, cute, exciting paranormal romance then this is perfect.

They soon begin to lust for human women and, at the prodding of their leader Sam then departs to find Melusine, to whom she also tells her story; to stop Angel from distracting her, she sings loudly, knowing it to be a method to stop him from hearing her thoughts.
