The New York Urban landlord is now much less likely to be a family or an individual who has owned one or two buildings for years, depending on them for a safe and steady income, and much more likely to be a faceless, massively financed international firm that is highly incentivized to force you out on the street and keep its investors happy. By trying to improve our cities, we have only succeeded in making them empty simulacra of what. They cut through electrical cables and crash through ceilings and walls .

OurGroundBreakingReports.Spanish Lhota ran a scorched-earth campaign, warning New Yorkers in The New York Urban after commercial that a vote for some fuzzy liberal like De Blasio meant regression, meant going back to the bad old days of runaway crime, bankruptcy, and disorder. As this dot density map shows, population growth the blue dots is heavily concentrated in the center of the region.
