And I just couldn't let it go. You can also see this review on my blog: www. The world that Janice Hardy has created is richly detailed and very interesting, with some inspired concepts thrown in such as shifting or taking pain from . Akidnappedsisister,awar-crazytyrantandthedangerouspowershedreadstov Additional "not-quite-there" elements of the book were character losses that should have been mourned longer than they were and suspicious words and deeds that should not have been ignored by secondary characters. I was glad Tali was back more, she was Darkfall (The Healing Wars one of my favourites, I was a bit upset about some of the things that happened to her, but it made for very exciting reading and I loved how it turned .
