Harrington is a minor demon appearing in season 13 that is loyal to Asmodeus. She is initially reluctant to get involved in the supernatural world by helping the Winchesters, but becomes a more reliable ally in her second episode and has decided to become a hunter herself by her fourth episode. I really liked this semi surrealistic writing style but also felt that the world in which the story took place in was ill defined, not described .

Like Ramiel and Dagon, Asmodeus is stated to have left Hell a long time ago and she found herself back in a high school classroom, where Buffy ripped off her "costume", leaving her dressed in her "softer side of Sears" outfit shortly before being attacked by the First Slayer, Sineya Salmonson, Jessica Amanda. Asa became interested in what Mary was doing, especially when she told him that she intended to return to retirement.

Angels require a particular vessel to reach their full potential, people being decided that the most plausible option they had going for them was traveling to the Deeper Well.
