Winter the seasons slow movement. Dissonances, however, betray an agitated soul.

His vast output of religious music includes some fifty highly complicated dances. In both cases, Vivaldi shows himself to be skilled and imaginative at depicting the psyche in music: he paints exciting dream visions and gives the peace and relaxation of sleep plastic form. Moreover the instrument had never been used in Venice as a solo instrument. Vivaldi's music was popular during his lifetime and earned him a representative income.

The writing displays a profound understanding of the technical capacity of the instrument. In both cases, Vivaldi shows himself to be skilled and imaginative at depicting the psyche in music: he paints exciting dream visions and gives the peace and relaxation of sleep plastic form.
