His nemesis was Schrade, a ruthless international criminal who arranged the "accident" that killed Harry's wife. Indeed, in what comes as a pleasant surprise, most of the tales selected by editors Sarah Cortez and Liz Martinez take place in a broader conception of America as Indian country--the entire northern continent, in fact. I really loved this because it included a territory well away from the more travelled path.
Storylines have much in common with other indigenous writers and stories Ith
