Humans cannot, even as a part of nature, exist in a perpetual sustainable relationship with their environment. An exploration of ministry that is biblically informed and culturally relevant.

Theologianssoonsawadangerinthismovement.Amongthenumerousbiblicalt Caputo distinguishes between confessional theology and a circumfessional theology, the former of which actually exists as the concrete expression of existing religious communities, and the latter of which insists as a demand of thought responsive to the event harboured within the name of God. For the last two millennia Christians have struggled to understand and respond to this central mystery, and in this seminar we will join that ongoing conversation.
