I challenge you to read the Book of John, chapter one. Both of them smile everyday.

I hope that you come away from the concert feeling refreshed, with a renewed vision. That leaves me a whole day off, most evenings with our six children, and plenty of flexibility which is always necessary. In disposition Brother Stevens is earnest, sober-minded and mild-mannered.

And what sins do you love so much that you feel compelled to impugn your Creator that not just another religion you are preaching?
