The absence of the concept of nation in geography comes from the divorce between our discipline and geopolitics, and reveals a difficulty of the subject to think the political in geography. R2P, which began to take shape in was an attempt to remedy what had become an ad hoc interventionism. Broadly put, as they have progressed through the generations, UN peace operations have moved from a reactive stance that seeks to freeze or palliate conflict to one that is proactive and seeks to influence its outcome. Thesecondisanarrowinstitutionalism. Happiness is all together a hedonist version and a State vision of the "right middle", free from human passions. Nor must one be a worrywart to look over the shoulder when the leader of a powerful country like Turkey, astride the crossroads of many civilizations, makes such claims without cracking a smile.

Thisquestioniscompletelydifferentfromthepreviousoneinthatitisbase 44 of the First Convention. The question, of course, is why do so many intelligent, and in quite a few cases brilliant, people believe such absurdities, and, indeed, present them as methodologies for transforming the human condition?
