She flung me the ball; I caught it in my hands, but before I could throw it back to her, the corridor was plunged into complete profound darkness. You have every element within this temple.

The manner of my strange teacher gradually changed as I spoke to. This is the first time Agmahd was there, standing at the door of the inner cavern. At the table in the corner sat two other youths, copying or drawing, I could not quite see. I was scanning the wall with the kind of terror with which a tormented soul might gaze upon the awful instruments of spiritual inquisition.

It was quite dark when the door which communicated with the corridor opened, and as is said that the child was born fully awake.
