If anything characterizes vile centuries, it is considering such a thing a triumph, the ridiculousness of such a joy, the inversion of every moral and natural idea. These are the soldiers of Cadmus: the first who are armed turn themselves against their brothers and hurl themselves on. But these examples are dangerous to establish in books for morals. ThematchingbetweenBryen,afanofautomaticwriting,andthedecadentJule Cognitive psychology holds that emotions are the response to stimuli that combine not only physiological reactions but also cognitive evaluations, appraisals and perceptions. Louis XV declared bankruptcy three or four times, and people still swore he was a gentleman.
