Simplicity was not the foible of Pedro de Corral, who, about compiled the Coronica Sarrazyna, Corral professed to write serious history based on the records of two purely imaginary chroniclers of Rodrigo's times, and in truth Corral began by consulting genuine historical sources. Indulgent in judgement, Ruiz observes with meticulous accuracy ; his vigilant preoccupation with his personages does not diminish the variety of his metrical design ; though he uses the cuaderna via, the measure most in vogue among the learned when he was young, he manipulates it with- an easy freedom hitherto unequalled ; he goes further afield, varying his rhythms at wiU, adum- brating the future verso de arte mayor, finding forms appropriate to themes devout, licentious, or dramatic. The bibliography on Modernism in Brazil is enhanced by this centenary celebration of Oswald de Andrade. Gayangos,op. In the funerary schemes of a king of Castile with eyes set on Ceuta and points south and no existing ceremonial capital, his opposite number in Granada might reasonably have suspected a worldlier purpose. Not in Sabin.
