The next day, Nick is looking for Eden but can't find. In both films, Minghella exudes a quiet intensity punctuated by outbursts of passion: he is an actor capable of treading the careful line between control and instinctive spontaneity. He began to write in English again, although he also wrote in French until the 1960s. Only a small part of what is said can be verified. The story of Hamlet as told from the viewpoint of two courtiers echoes Beckett in its double act repartee, existential themes and language play.

This also evidently indicates the first time Nick meets Mr. ClosetoHome. They were the first known Europeans to see the great ocean, which Magellan named Mar Pacifico, the Pacific Ocean, for its apparent peacefulness, a stark contrast to the dangerous waters of the strait from which he had just emerged.
