In short, we assume that to think is to generalize—and philosophy is supposedly the most general, most abstract thinking of all. GA 65,CP, Advancedsearch. We must appreciate not only given beings, but the giving of them as beings. Includes select bibliography, notes, and index. Forgotpassword?Olympian or not, we must reach some participatory sense of the enactment of beings before we can appropriately engage them; and without that sense we would be capable only of furthering the travail of a suicidal machinational world that sucks out the marvelous lives of beings in a frenzy of useful assignation and objective recognition.
