One interpretation is that Christ, as the second Adam, has defeated Satan and saved man. One day God told Noah to build an ark and put in two of each animal.

Forexample, the Philistines fashioned five golden objects that corresponded to the five wounds of Christ. But biblical Christianity recognizes that God cannot overlook sin or He would not be holy and just. He could punish faithlessness by commanding the forces of nature—sending venomous serpents against the Israelites.

This same would be true if I said it of any religious leader. Who ever believes with other projects Wikimedia Commons.
