Your left-brain has all your priors which slowly need to be adjusted by new data which is slowly, slowly worked upon by the right-brain. Freud, to be sure, does not preach the denial of bodily love, but at the same time he never denied the need for self-restraint and self-discipline. If people can understand their own love stories, perhaps they will be able to manage future outcomes of those stories more successfully. BSGQuote. He is not a principle; he is individual, personal, definite, all this without being an idol As Professor Tfillich has put it, he is independent of his nation, Israel, and he is also independent of his own individual nature as conveyed by the symbols. Although sometimes confused with the distinction between concupiscent and benevolent love, this is really quite different.
