The Paladins split up from the Atlas to search for signs of another Robeast, similar to the one that attacked Earth, but find nothing for days. After saving the Ark and resting in the Castle, it is apparent to them now that Zarkon is following them by way of his old connection to the Black Lion.

Optimus turned having heard all the objections she held up a hand. Lotor asks the coalition to "have a discussion" despite their differences in the past. However, it almost seemed like an abrupt ending.

For the final challenge, Bob has each of the Paladins vote for one person who they think is the most likely to win. Allura wakes up two days later, she has little memory of the recent events.
