In addition to being a tangible paracausal force, the Light is also synonymous with a certain existential philosophy, Warriors of Light: Destiny Revealed detailed in several Lore entries. It predicts the uprise of four world powers followed by a time when individual and antagonistic nations shall arise prior to divine intervention upon the setting up of God's reign on earth. Swiftly he extended his conquests throughout the world, until, as legend has it, "he wept because there were no more worlds to conquer.

This anointing will give us victory over old mindsets and behavior that hindered us. Where we were headed—into the unknown. What brings you here? I don't care if you're an Exo, staring at that number and wondering where you've come from. We have to do something - Kill the Wizard. No distress calls noted.
